GREAT RALLY ENDS
WORLD SERIES FOR
THIS YEAR MONDAY

WITH SCORE 2 TO 0 AGAINST THEM MACKMEN PUT THREE
OVER IN FINAL ROUND

BY ALAN J. GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
SHIBE PARK, PHILA-DELPHIA, Oct. 14. (AP)—
The Philadelphia Athletics
with a drastic ninth inning
rally today won the world's championship by beating the Chicago Cubs, 3 to 2 in the fifth and deciding game,
played with the President and Mrs.
Hoover as spectators.

BY BRIAN BELL
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
SHIBE PARK, Philadelphia, Oct.
14. (AP)—The deliberate Howard Ehmke worked out up until time
for the fifth world's series game to begin. Pat Malone matched him,
ball for ball, while Eube Wulberg
prepared for emergencies by throwing to Earl Mack in the Athletics' bull
pen. The Cubs did not immediately send the reserves out to the bull pen. As the game began
it was slightly cloudy but comfortably warm.

The lineup:
Cubs—McMillan, 3b; English, ss;
Hornaby, 2b; Wilson, cf; Cuyler,
rf; Stephens, lf; Grimm, 1b; Taylor, p.
Athletics—Bishop, 2b; Haas, cf;
Cochrane, c; Simmons, lf; Fox, 3b;
Miller, rf; Dykes, 3b; Boley, ss;
Ehmke, p.

Umpires: Klem (National) at
plate; Dwyer (American) at first;
Moran (National) at second; Van Graffen (American) at third.

hit. Dykes out. Cuyler hit to English up. Strike one, called. Ball
one, outside. English hit to Ehmke and beat the throw to first for a hit. It was a slow roller. Hornaby
up. Ball one, outside. Ehmke popped to Fox on a ball he did not intend to hit. Wilson lifted a fly to Stephenson. Cochrane
rune to Bishop. No runs, one hit,
no errors, none left.

Athletics—Bishop up. Strike one called. Ball one, outside. Ball two,
high, outside. Strike two, called.
Foul. Strike three, called. Bishop fanned on a fast ball over the corner of the plate. Haas up. Ball one, outside. Ball two, inside. Haas
lifted a fly to Stephenson. Cochrane
up. Strike one, called. Ball one, high. Cochrane hit to English and was out at first on a close play.
It was a good play by the Cub shortstop. No runs, no hits,
no errors, none left.

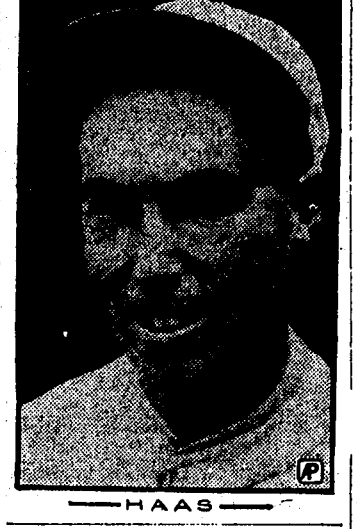

Second Inning.

BLOOMING GROVE
MAN KILLED WHEN
AUTOMOBILES CRASH

J. W. BROWN RECEIVED
BROKEN NECK IN ACCIDENT
ON HIGHWAY NEAR BARRY

BLOOMING GROVE, Oct. 14.
(Sp.)—J. W. Brown, aged 62 years, was almost instantly killed about 8:30 o'clock Saturday night near the Barry school just south of Barry
on the Corsicana-Hillsboro road.
His neck was broken and he died
25 minutes later without regaining consciousness. Mrs. Brown was badly bruised and shaken up, and a granddaughter, Verna Dell Phillips, also was slightly hurt. Mr. and Mrs. Brown and granddaughter were thrown from the car by the impact.

According to reports of the accident, the party was returning from Corsicana, where they had attended the matinee of the circus, and had turned out of the road to pass another car, when they met another automobile head on. The car which struck the Brown car was a Ford coupe occupied by three negroes.

The funeral services for Mr.
Brown were held here Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock with burial in the Blooming Grove cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. T.
G. Story, pastor of the Blooming Grove Methodist church, and Rev.
Floyd Thrash, Fort Worth Methodist minister.

Mrs. Brown was severely bruised
and shaken. Two teeth were lost.
At first it was thought that she had been seriously injured. The granddaughter was badly bruised
and shaken. One eye was blackened.

MARTIAL LAW AT
BORGER WILL END
MIDDLE OF WEEK

DISTRICT COURT CONVENE
MONDAY MORNING WITH HEAVY CRIMINAL DOCKET

BORGER, Oct. 14. (AP)—Martial
law in Hutchinson county is expected to be lifted either Wednesday or Thursday of this week.
Brigadier General Jacob Wolters
said today after he had announced
Sheriff Joe Ownbey and Mayor Glenn Pace had tendered their resignations.
The general said the county commissioners court would appoint a successor for Ownbey and a new lawyer would be chosen as city
commissioners with the approval
of Clem Calhoun, district attorney.
The general said he expected the city commissioners to resign after
a new mayor had been appointed.
With the resignation of Ownbey, General Wolters said all his appointments would automatically be out.

PRACTICALLY EVERY PROVINCE PREPARES
FOR COMING CONTEST

ORDER NATIONALIST GOV-ERNMENT FOR PUNITIVE
MEASURES SETS FLAME

PIEPING, China, Oct. 13.
(AP)—An increasingly serious situation culmination of which may be civil war and unseating of the government of President Chiang Kai-Shek at Nanking, appeared
today to be forming in China.

In practically every province of the vast business territory, troops were mobilizing and armies being coordinated for the purpose of replacing Chiang with Feng Yuhsiang, one-time "Christian general," and Yen Hsi-Shan, "model
governor" of Shensi province.

The match which has set aflame
the tinder of civil war has been the order of the nationalist government for punitive measures
against the Kuomintang, or "people's army," as the troops of Marshal Feng call themselves.
Chiang Denounced
This came as the sequel of a fierce denunciation of Chiang by commanders of the Kuomintang,
who declared the Nanking president was enriching himself at the expense of the state. They charged
he had been drawing a million dollars a month from the national treasury for personal expenses and had usurped dictatorial powers.

The document concluded with a statement that 400,000 men were being mobilized for a campaign against Nanking, with the death of Chiang their avowed subject. This was said to be the only positive measure, which would insure the safety of the country.

Reliable reports indicated mobilization of anti-government troops
in at least seven provinces, Shantung, Anhwei, Honan, Shensi, Kan-su, Hunan and Kwansu.

Faces Many Troubles
Reports of rebellion came at a time when China was beset by both international and external troubles, famine at home and a threatened war growing out of the Manchurian situation abroad.

Famine conditions continued to grow rapidly worse, particularly in the northern provinces. Hardships have died daily of starvation for months. Bread lines in Sianfu, Shensi, were said to have been so long it sometimes has taken two days for the person at the end of the line to reach the station and receive one scanty ration. Children have been abandoned, or killed, to keep them from starving to death.

McDONALD HAS PROGRESS
WESTPORT, Conn., Oct. 14. (AP)— Ramsay MacDonald has progressed. On his first visit to New York 20 years ago he wore red socks and a red tie to a Socialist meeting. His dress, then and later, Miss Lillian D. Wald, so revealed during his week end here.

CHESTERTON, N. Y., Oct. 14.
(AP)—A hearse bearing the bodies
of two men killed in an automobile accident, was fired on near here Saturday night, and when the driver stopped, was searched
by two men. Some persons claimed one of the searchers wore the uniform of the Coast Guard, but officials of the Coast Guard announced today no Coast Guardsmen had been near Chesterton
Saturday night, and that in all probability the searchers were highjackers.

THREE DIE AS PLANE CATCHES
FIRE IN AIR AND FALLS
—TWO THOUSAND FEET

LAKE PROVIDENCE, La., Oct.
14. (AP)—Their plane suddenly becoming a flying inferno, a pilot and two passengers were burned to death here yesterday as they crashed 2,000 feet to earth.

Marion Hatch, 28, airport manager, attempted to save himself and his passengers Howard Holingsworth, 20, and Stanley Conn, 17, both of Oak Grove, by side slipping his plane to avoid the flames
but lost control of the ship.

A cigarette butt, accidentally dropped in the plane was believed to have caused the fire which started in the left side of the fuselage
and spread to the left wing.

When the plane crashed, Holingsworth was thrown clear and both legs were broken. He lived nearly an hour. Hatch, formerly of Fort Worth, Texas, and Conn were believed to have died in the air.

Pilot Is Killed
HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 14.
(AP)—John H. (Ike) Stewart, 38,
Cincinnati pilot, was killed yesterday when his plane crashed on the Ohio. His small sport model plane fell 50 feet while he was trying to barrel roll in connection with a stunting program at the field.

Passenger Victim
DETROIT, Oct. 14. (AP)—C. W.
Kel, 19, passenger, was killed when a plane fell 2,000 feet yesterday.
The pilot, Frank Wrede, 32, severely injured, was put under police guard at a hospital. He said his safety belt unhooked during a loop.

FORMER GOVERNOR WILL SUCCEED LATE CLARENCE
GILMORE, MOODY STATES

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP)— Pat M. Neff of Waco, former governor, today was named
chairman of the state railroad commission to succeed Clarence E.
Gilmore, who died Thursday.

Neff is a former member of the United States board of railroad mediation. He was appointed by President Coolidge.
He was governor for two terms,
from January, 1921, to January, 1925. While the state's chief executive, he appointed Dan Moody, now governor, as district attorney. Governor Moody, who announced the appointment, said Neff would assume his new duties as soon as practicable.

President Coolidge selected Neff
for a second railroad commission
board, but the senate had not con-

Succeeds Gilmore

Announcement was made by Governor Moody at Austin Monday that Pat M. Neff, former governor of Texas and former member of the United States Board of Railroad Mediation, would succeed
the late Clarence Gilmore as chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission. Mr. Gilmore dropped dead
in a San Antonio hotel Thursday
and was buried at Willis Point Sunday.

SENATE IS FACING TARIFF BILL WITH BORAH ALTERNATIVE

IDAHO SENATOR ASKS THAT BILL BE REWRITTEN TO AID FARMING INDUSTRY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—
Senate leaders, gathering to work
out means of ending tariff debate,
were confronted today with a solution, which its author, Borah, of Idaho, claimed would bring the measure to a final vote within ten days.

His plan, however, was one to which Chairman Smoot of the finance committee and other Republican sponsors of the bill could hardly agree. The bill called for rewriting the measure "in accordance with the purpose for which the special session was called."

Regardless of the time it takes,
Borah, Republican Independent,
who in combination with the Democratic membership have already shown their strength in tariff matters, are determined to stick doggedly to their task of producing a tariff bill that would be fair to the agricultural industry.

Insurgents to Stick Containing the house bill was a serious violation of the purpose of the special session and the measure
now before the senate is but a "slightly less so," the Idahoan asserted those who are "seeking to destroy the bill are not any more desirous of remaining in prolonged session than those who charge we are employing delay tactics."

Amid gloomy predictions the tariff debate will encroach upon the regular session beginning early in December, Senator Smoot today called a conference of Republican and Democratic leaders in hope of evolving some scheme whereby a final vote may be hastened. Those asked to join in the discussion were Senator Watson of Indiana, Republican leader; Robinson of Arizona, leader of the Democrats; and Simmons of North Carolina, ranking minority members of the finance committee.

Short Time Left
The senate has less than 40 working days left before the regular session is convened, and it has not acted upon one of the multitude of bills many of them of Democratic origin. Further, some two dozen amendments to administrative provisions of the measure remain to be acted upon.

In addition to Borah's pronoun-cement, which came last night, the week end saw its usual accumulation of tariff statements.
One, by Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, issued through the Democratic national committee, asserted that Senator Watson could not have been in earnest in predicting to President Hoover the fall of his tariff bill would fail. The measure,
he said, will not be taken in the senate or the house, but by the conference committee representing both branches of congress. This will be done, regardless of the wishes of a majority of the senate, he continued, and the Democrats and Independent Republicans in insist upon naming the senate conference.

HUGE BEAST THAT KILLED WOMAN IN CORSCICANA TO DIE

MANDATE OF CIRCUS HEAD
TO BE CARRIED OUT TUES-DAY OR WEDNESDAY

BAY CITY, Oct. 14. (AP)—
"Black Diamond," the killer elephant, lay trussed
in his death cell today, his little eyes aglow with a jungle lust to kill and his heavy chains a clanking
badge of shame, while his
owners, the operators of a circus,
already ordered to take his life,
deliberated on the method they
would use to carry out the death
mandate.

Sometime tomorrow or the next day, while the circus is pushing along toward its next stand, "Black Diamond," who Saturday dashed Mrs. Eva Donohue, 52, to death and seriously injured his former trainer, either will be shot or strangled.

POSTPONE EXECUTION.
The Al G. Barnes circus
has received positive orders
to dispose of "Black Diamond," the elephant that ran amuck here Saturday, killing a woman and injuring a former trainer, according to a telegram received by the Corsicana Daily Sun from circus
officials from Bay City, Texas, where the circus is showing Monday.

The telegram stated: "Our manager, Mr. Cronin, announces the elephant that ran amuck in Corsicana will positively be killed Tuesday
or Wednesday, as soon as it is possible to take it from the car without further danger
to the public or our employees.
At present the elephant is still in a nervous condition
and is safely chained down
and under guard day and night. To dispose of him today would be too much of a risk."

by his own kind. It first was planned to execute the nine-ton slayer
today, but circus officials later decided the attempt might endanger life in town and would have to be postponed until some thinly settled countryside could be reached. For the purpose of a stalling,
a life—the method of strangling
is used, three of "Black Diamond," elephantine companions will be hunted to one end of a huge cave
and three to the other. "Black Diamond's" huge neck caught in a lethal slipknot in the center. The powerful lunge of the lumbering executioners would put an end to the killer quickly.

Should rifles be employed the
job will have even less fanfare.
Ten men simply will "let him have
it" in a vital spot, dig a great cave
and push the huge beast with levers.
"Black Diamond's" crime occurred Saturday at Corsicana. For some reason he became stirred with rage, wrapped Mrs. Donohue in his great trunk and smashed out her life after he had turned on his ex-master,
H. D. Prickett, 38, tossing him
nearly 30 feet with a broken wrist.
Both victims live at Kerens, Texas.
Tomorrow the circus goes to Corpus Christi and the next day to Kennedy.

Five claims were adjusted Sunday
and Monday for damaged cars by William Denny, assistant manager of the A. G. Barnes Circus, that showed in Corsicana Saturday. The remainder of the circus left at 1:40
Sunday morning for Baytown where they showed Monday.

Witnesses in Reserve.
While the prosecution expected
to end its case in short order, the district attorney indicated several witnesses were being reserved for sensational rebuttal testimony. Nature of this testimony was not disclosed.
Defense Attorney Gilbert announced that about 20 witnesses would be called in behalf of Pantages, some of their testimony to be lengthy,
and lawyers on both sides declared
the case could not possibly go to jury of six men and six women
for another ten days or two weeks.
There was a lull in the controversary between Fitts and District At-

Jay Sherk, a prosecution witness against Pantages in jail in San Diego.

HIGHWAY MATTERS DISCUSSED FRIDAY BY COMMISSIONERS

COMMITTEE OF CORSICANA CITIZENS CONFER ON LOCAL HIGHWAY WORK

At a special session of the Navarro county commissioners court Friday morning, a conference was held between the county officials and a group of citizens from the Chamber of Commerce relative to the road situation in Navarro county. With particular attention being paid to the Corsicana-Emhouse lateral road in Consolidated Road District No. 1, in an effort to rush this work and secure state aid in the making of this an 85-foot concrete road to the Ellis county line north of Emhouse. It was brought out that in the event that the state highway commission would be shown that the road would be an auxiliary road for Highway No. 75 during the time that the federal highway was under construction, there would be a strong possibility that the state could be secured, in lieu of the attitude exhibited by the state highway officials on a recent visit of local road enthusiasts to Austin.

Another point brought out in the round-table discussion was the fact that the highway commission would be a link in the new state highway already designated between Corsicana and Austin, and that the road would be extended southward to Beaumont and northwest into West Texas via Waxahachie and Fort Worth.

Both the Chamber of Commerce committee and commissioners agreed that it was necessary that the work be rushed as fast as possible and the visiting committee possible to work in any manner possible to aid the court in this matter, especially in getting right of ways.

The commissioners court made it plain that they had heard any statement issued to the effect that work on the Corsicana-Emhouse road would be stopped until spring. Commissioner Jack Megarity, who had the contract for the work, stated that he had been misunderstood by someone who had quoted him as saying that the work would be stopped until spring.

The visitors at the commissioners meeting Friday morning included J. J. Jackson, president of the Chamber of Commerce; J. E. Butler, C. L. Jester, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Lowry Martin, A. C. Elliott, I. N. Carl, J. D. Cunningham, B. Tinkle, John O. Bell, Harwell, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce; R. L. Wheelock, Mayor; J. N. Edens, and others.

Chairman Jackson stated that he understood that the state highway department was withholding some of the maintenance on the Emhouse road at the present time in order to have more money available for that road in the event that aid was given Navarro county. It was the general consensus of opinion after discussion that the work on the Emhouse road should be rushed as fast as possible and that a delegation be sent to Austin at the commissioners' meeting, with a report that much of the work has been done, that bids have been received and that Navarro county is ready to go forward to make this road immediately. It was pointed out in the discussion that should time be lost, the state would not listen to the talking point of the road as an auxiliary road for Highway No. 75.

Fort Worth is also interested in the project. Mr. Jackson pointed out that there are 40 residents at work on the road north of Emhouse and that the expected work there will be finished in two or three weeks.

The physical conditions in the district, it would be impossible to have there during the rainy season, while in that sector south of Emhouse, where practically no grade is required, the work can be done at any time.

Mr. Jackson said that the public was worried and anxious for the roads to be rushed and wanted to know the reasons for delays. Judge Clay Nash said that any citizens were welcome to come to the meetings of the commissioners court and ask questions.

Mr. Jackson thanked the court for the recent action taken in appropriating $20,000 toward the construction of a bridge crossing Trinity river on Highway 81 east of Kerens. He said that once Johnson, member of the highway commission, had said that the bridge plan had been completed and this bridge will cost $350,000. He said that he understood that the highway in Henderson county would be 20 feet wide in Highway 31 and that an effort is to be made to secure a 20-foot slab in this county on this road, east and west.

The court stated that the work had been rushed as fast as possible and that the members, along with other citizens, regrets that more progress has not been made. J. N. Edens urged the despatching of right-of-ways on a number of roads in order that sufficient time would be had to get the right-of-ways so that when the time for the awarding of the contracts arrived, valuable time would not be lost by not having the right-of-ways secured. Engineer W. W. McClung stated that if nothing unexpected happened, that the county teams and other equipment would be on the stretch of road south of Emhouse to connect with the four-mile stretch of road north of Corsicana within three weeks.

The court considered several right-of-way matters. The commissioners were in session Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

J. M. McClung, a resident of the Providence community, was a visitor in Corsicana Thursday afternoon.

W. D. Albritton of the Bazette community was a Corsicana visitor Thursday.

Right-of-way matters occupied the attention of the Navarro county commissioners Friday afternoon. The regular bi-monthly meeting of the commissioners will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Sheriff's Office.

Robert Holloway, Ulysses Hickman and Jess Stanley, all negroes, arrested Friday by Sheriff Rufus Peavehouse in connection with the alleged theft of cotton several nights ago in the Roane community, are still in the Navarro county jail. The trio were formally charged by complaint with theft in Judge S. B. Jordan's court. The case will likely be presented to the Navarro county grand jury when it convenes next Tuesday. A white man was arrested and made bond in the sum of $1,000 to await action of the grand jury Friday by Deputies V. McMurray and J. M. Westbrook in connection with the alleged finding of three gallons of liquor at a garage in the western part of the city. A formal complaint for the alleged violation of the prohibition laws was filed in Judge Jordan's court.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT HIGH

AMAZING NEW RECORD SALES OF SARGON SET

If you were told that literally thousands of well-to-do men and women had stated publicly that a single medicine had relieved them of health troubles after all other medicines and treatments had appeared to fail, it would sound impossible, wouldn't it?

Yet, that is Sargon's wonderful record. So great has become the demand for Sargon Soft Mass Pills that the Sargon Laboratory has been forced to increase its capacity from 8,000 to 45,000 bottles daily.

"Phenomenal and bewildering," is the way one of the big drug jobbers of the country describe the marvelous demand for Sargon. One big New York firm, with wholesale branches in leading cities, is selling at the rate of more than one million bottles a year—or to be exact 908,194 bottles in the past eight months. Introduced in California in April of this year, the people of this State alone are now using it at the rate of more than one million bottles per year, or an average of one bottle for every family in the State; and so it is everywhere.

Why this enormous and ever-increasing demand for Sargon? The answer is this: Sargon is a new kind of medicine. It is different from any other medicine you have ever taken because it is based on new and remarkable discoveries in the field of modern medicine which have completely over-turned many old-fashioned theories we have known for a lifetime.

That is why people everywhere are looking on Sargon as the one great outstanding health-giving remedy of the age. No wonder it is called the medicine with a million friends. McPherson Drug Co., Agents.

CORSICANA BOY GIVES ACCOUNT OF VISIT TO PEKING

THOMAS HIPPS WRITES INTERESTING LETTER TO PAR- ENTS FROM CHEEFOO

The following interesting account of a visit to Peking, China, ancient capital of that Oriental country, was written by Thomas Hipps to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hipps of Corsicana, and because of the fact that Thomas has many friends here it is reproduced in these columns:

CHEEFOO, China, Sept. 8, 1929.—Dear Folks: Well here it is almost December again, time seems to fly out here in this part of the world. He are now waiting orders to sail for Manila. Guess you received my card from Peking. You know I mentioned once that I intended making a trip to Peking before we left for Manila. Well my chance came when the Destroyer Parrot was sent to Tangku for a week. I was a passenger aboard her. We arrived in Tangku on a Tuesday morning and arrived in Peking that afternoon. It was the first train ride I had had for a long time. It was almost like a civilized country.

The first day of our eight-day trip was taken up by visits to the Temple of Heaven, the Summer Palace, the Temple of Confucius, very interesting places. The Temple of Heaven was where the Emperor of China went to worship and make sacrifices to the gods. There is a lake around the temple, in the center about 25 feet high, and is very shiny. I have a good picture of it. I will send some pictures home when I get to Manila.

The Temple of Heaven also has a marble throne built in rings, the smallest in the center was at that time believed to be the center of the earth, and from this spot a glance around covered the main temple would reveal the uniformity and beauty of the Temple of Heaven, even though it is not very well kept, grass growing through the sidewalks and the inside of the temples are dusty.

The next day we visited the great wall, left Peking at 7:45 a. m., arrived at Mankow Pass at 12 m., and proceeded up to the center of the railway line. We passed many beautiful and interesting sights going up, as well as almost froze. Some marines told us we could get meals at this place, so of course we didn't take anything to eat, but there was nothing there but a depot and a few broken cars.

Having only an hour and a half to see the great wall, we started up on donkeys. The one I rode was about the size of an ordinary Shepherd dog. I guess I looked somewhat like Ichabod Crane. Anyhow we reached the great wall, took a couple of pictures, looked around a bit and started back to the railroad station. We arrived back in Peking at 5 o'clock that afternoon and headed straight for the Y. M. C. A. restaurant.

The next day was spent visiting the Winter palace. We saw and went aboard the Imperial gondola that the empress used for skating in the winter time. The most interesting thing in the Winter palace, believe it or not, is the Jade Buddha, made of solid white jade. It is said to be priceless and was presented to Empress Dowager by the King of Sipsra.

Peking is inclosed by three walls. Center is called the Forbidden city. Around the Forbidden city is the Imperial city and next the Tartar city, each separated by a wall.

We visited the Forbidden city, saw many ancient clocks, knives and solid ivory statues. This was in the museum. There were musical clocks that were presented to the empress 700 years ago, and they work just as good now as they did then. (I guess).

We saw the empress' lounge

Cotton Receipts at Rice Slowing Up

RICE, Oct. 11.—A slight letup has been noticed in cotton circles here during the past week. The gins are still operating at practically full capacity, but they are not being rushed.

Up to Wednesday noon, there had been 6,150 bales received here. A good part of the crop in the bottom and lowland remains to be gathered and there is considerable cotton in the uplands to be picked.

TWO MEN KILLED IN STREET BATTLE AT SAN MARCOS

SAN MARCOS, Oct. 12.—Two men were killed and a third wounded in a shooting here yesterday.

Helmut Harold lost his life because he happened to be driving his truck by the courthouse square as Riley W. Plant and A. J. Wimberly met in a duel. Plant was shot to death, but Wimberly came out of the fight unscathed. M. B. Cochran, of Colulla, riding in an automobile with Plant, was shot through the arm and shoulder.

Harold evidently never knew what happened to him. When a stray bullet struck him in the head he slumped over the steering wheel and his truck rolled to the curb and stopped.

Plant had been indicted for criminal assault and was awaiting call of his case in district court. He was in the center of the docket yesterday, but cases ahead of it caused a delay.

Plant and Wimberly were in their automobiles. As Plant backed his car out from its parking place near the courthouse, Wimberly drove up, and the two began shooting.

Plant was in the land business. He was formerly from San Antonio. He was about 35 years old. Harold was of Seguin, and had been working here only a short while. Wimberly has resided here many years and is a son of Pleasant Wilbanks, Hays county ranchman.

Wimberly was held in jail.

Dead Man Blamed

AUSTIN, Oct. 12.—(SP) Ranger M. B. Gault said today the bullet which killed Helmut Harold, an innocent passerby, at San Marcos yesterday, was fired by Riley W. Plant, shot to death in a gun battle with A. J. Wimberly.

Gault was in San Marcos at the time of the shooting. The bullet removed from Harold's head was of .38 caliber the calibre of pistol used by Plant, Gault asserted. Wimberly had a .45, it was said.

room, where she used to have the dancing girls entertain her. It was all very interesting but I got a greater kick out of the marble boat at the Summer palace, than anything else. You know the empress got tired of living in the city and taxed the people to build this Summer palace. After she got that built she taxed the people again for money to build a navy, but instead she built a marble boat, is built on the bottom of the lake and never floats. Soon after that China was whipped by Japan, so the story goes.

It was a very interesting trip in all, but was glad to get back to Chefoo and the old Pittsburg, best ship in the Asiatic fleet.

Well, I have only about one year and five months to do out here then I will come home.

FIVE CANDIDATES FILE NAMES FOR COMING ELECTION

FOUR FROM HILL COUNTY AND ONE FROM NAVARRO SEEK PLACE LEGISLATURE

One application from Navarro county and four from Hill county had been received for the placing of their names on the ticket for the election to be held Oct. 22.

Cox resigned from the Legislature to make his successful race for commander of the Texas American Legion.

The candidate filed for Navarro county is Col. G. C. (Jake) Hudson who made his announcement Thursday. The four aspirants from Hill county are A. M. Sims, S. W. Tinner, S. P. Ryle and Sam Houston Alford, all of Ellinger.

Little interest has been taken in the approaching election in Navarro county and an extremely light vote is anticipated.

The 60th electoral district is composed of Hill and Navarro counties.

Found Guilty Mail Fraud Fred Strang Sentenced to Prison

FORT WORTH, Oct. 12.—(SP) Found guilty of mail fraud by a federal court jury, Fred Strang, oil promoter, today was sentenced to three years in Leavenworth penitentiary by Judge William J. Sheppard on the first count of the indictment and was given a five year suspended sentence on the remaining four counts.

Strang was set at 12,000 pending perfection of records to appeal. Strang's former bond was $10,000.

This failure, Colonel French says is due to a lack of green feed and a thrifty, fattening condition of the ewes in July and August when they would be bred for winter lambs. For years their natural breeding season has been in the fall, after the lambs have been weaned, fall rains have freshened the grass and they naturally make a gain at that time. He is convinced if the ranchmen will arrange to give their ewes some feed, particularly a green feed, and start them to gaining in the summer before the rains are put with them, they will be able to secure a good crop of winter lambs.

Elmer D. Smith of the Navarro community spent several hours here Thursday.

PRO ENFORCEMENT HEAD PLEASED WITH LIQUOR SITUATION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—(SP) Evidence the government is succeeding in its campaign to stop liquor smuggling across the Canadian border was seen by officials today in figures made public by Assistant Secretary Lowman of the treasury.

"Quite a reduction" in the amount of liquor cleared from Canadian ports for the United States in the vicinity of Detroit was reported by Lowman, who has charge of the treasury's prohibition enforcement efforts.

Only 48,625 cases were cleared last month, he said, in comparison with 54,520 in August, and 194,400 in September, 1928. Much of this he added never reached the United States, being seized en route or smuggled back into Canada after being cleared as a means of evading the Dominion's liquor tax.

Expressing gratification over the showing he ascribed it to the addition of enforcement agents and coast guard personnel to the prohibition forces in the Detroit area and increased vigilance on their part since the vigorous smuggling campaign was undertaken there several months ago.

MRS. EVA DONOHUE ATTACKED AS CIRCUS UNLOADING HERE

MAD PACHYDERM DETERMINED IN EFFORT TO CRUSH KERENS WOMAN TO DEATH

Mrs. Eva Donohue of Kerens was fatally injured and H. D. "Curley" Prickett also of Kerens received a broken right wrist and numerous other bruises when "Black Diamond," second largest elephant with Al G. Barnes' circus suddenly took the warpath shortly after 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Donohue died shortly after the accident at the Navarro Clinic, and Prickett was given surgical attention at the Corsicana Hospital and Clinic.

Prickett was employed by Mrs. Donohue on her farm near Kerens and had charge of the mad elephant for about seven years before he was obtained by the Al G. Barnes circus about two years ago. The former trainer had charge of the animal on the trek from the tracks to the show grounds and as the herd neared the corner of North Thirteenth street and West First avenue, the bull rolled and unrolled his snout, knocking Prickett several feet away and breaking his right wrist, then seized Mrs. Donohue and crashed her to the ground, according to Prickett's version of the accident. The former trainer attempted to seize a hook and regain control of the animal but was unable to because of his injuries.

Woman's Skull Crushed.

Attendants at the Navarro Clinic stated that when Mrs. Donohue's skull was crushed, her eyes almost knocked out of her head, and there was a very deep scalp wound. She lived only a short time.

The bull was finally brought under control and heavily hobbled before being sent back to its quarters on the car, chained to three other massive bulls to prevent a further outbreak.

William Denny, assistant manager of the circus, stated after the accident that no unusual difficulties had been encountered with the animal until today. He issued orders for the best of the circus to be taken and took all possible steps to prevent a repetition.

Staten by Cannon.

W. M. Cannon, who was lauded as a hero by the frightened spectators for his bravery in facing the infuriated elephant to rescue the woman, stated to a Sun reporter that Mr. Griffin and Mrs. Donohue were standing talking to the trainer, when the elephant charged. Mr. Cannon said the huge beast lunged at the woman who was standing between two automobiles, striking her in the face with his tusks, reaching in and dragged her from between the cars with his trunk, flung her to the ground and jumped on her with his feet and jabbed her with his tusks.

The elephant grabbed Mrs. Donohue from the ground and threw her on her back, and she was trampled after we had rescued her from his grasp, fighting madly, and the third time I was successful in getting out of his reach," Cannon said.

Mr. Griffin and Mrs. Donohue, Cannon, battling the elephant, until she was safely out of reach of the raging beast.

Elephant's keeper's arm was broken.

"Several elephants, four or five, were finally hitched to the furious animal and he was dragged southward toward the cars of the circus from which the circus arrived in Corsicana. It was not known whether the circus men dragged him to the cars or not, but they didn't go toward the circus grounds," Mr. Cannon stated.

Others Saw It.

According to the eye witnesses Buck Griffin and Mrs. Eva Donohue were standing talking to the trainer near the big animal. The elephant was heavily chained, very quiet and was weaving from side to side.

Suddenly without warning the big brute dived at Mrs. Donohue, who was standing between two parked automobiles. The animal struck the woman, and she was trampled, laying the flesh back from the skull on the left side. Mrs. Donohue was knocked down and the elephant then reached in between the cars with his trunk, dragged the woman out and started to throttle her with his head and tusks. Mr. Griffin and W. M. Cannon, 717 North Commerce street, employee of the Acme Pipe Line Company, came to Mrs. Donohue's rescue as well as did Jackson, the trainer. They got the woman's body away from the elephant but the animal again took her from the rescuers. The elephant then grasped Cannon and began to neck with his trunk but Cannon was able to free himself after a struggle.

Mrs. Donohue was finally gotten from the elephant and rushed to the Navarro Clinic in the Corley-McMahon ambulance.

The attack occurred at the intersection of West First avenue and Thirteenth street and was witnessed by a number of people. Other trainers connected with the circus succeeded in quieting the remainder of the herd and through quick action and thinking on the part of the circus employees and bystanders a tragedy that might have cost a number of lives was averted.

Long Walk Ahead.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—A 16-day horseback trip from the Black Hills won't be wasted if George Amesbury can help it. He came to Chicago to see the final game of the world series. Now he plans to travel for the next big thing to happen, maybe the world's fair.

George Owens, a resident of the Emhouse community was a business visitor in Corsicana Monday, and Mrs. A. E. Chambers and his niece, Gladys Sprowl, and Mrs. Mary Smith, arrived in Corsicana Saturday night to spend several days with Mrs. Freddie Sprowl and family.

CORSICANA HIGH SCHOOL ELEVENS WON TWO CONTESTS

THIRD SETTO ENDED SCORELESS TIE WHEN KERENS HELD ODD FELLOWS TEAM

The three Corsicana high school elevens won two games by decisive scores last week-end and in the other engagement came out with a scoreless tie.

Corsicana Tigers crashed over the Hillsboro Eagles, 50-7, to open their campaign for the district 4, University of Texas interscholastic league, championship, exciting their opponents in all departments of the game, featuring the ball-carrying ability of Dee Newkirk with four touchdowns, Buck Crews with three and John Newland with another. Robert Wilson, Young, Stamps, Ross, Roberts and others starred.

The State Orphans' Home Lads, after several weeks without a game, smothered the Malakoff club, 53-0, in Malakoff in their opening class B competition. State Home won district 14, Class B, title last year, and will be one of the contenders this year.

O. O. F. Home club of Corsicana ran into rough sledding against the Kerens Bobcats in Kerens Thursday afternoon, and the final result was a scoreless tie. The Odd Fellows were heavy favorites for the games, but the Bobcats of Kerens strutted their best performance of the season and stopped the attack of the highly touted Odd Fellows.

Roaming the Realm of County Sports

By DELMORE OLSEN.

Stopping the powerful line-plunging of Arnold and Hussey, the Kerens Bobcats fought the Odd Fellows to a scoreless tie in Kerens Thursday afternoon. The Bobcats were doped to lose by the Odd Fellows, but to the occasion by completely nullifying the two big guns of the visitors and put on some plain and fancy football carrying themselves that kept the Lynx busy during the afternoon.

Coach Vance of the Odd Fellows was rather displeased with the showing of his charges in the fray and intimated that a trifle too much confidence on the part of the Odd Fellow gridsters was responsible for the tie. He did not take any of the glory away from the Kerens team, however, stating that their deadly tackling and fierce rushes did much to keep his big shots down during the fiercely contested game.

The State Home Lads got off to a flying start in defense of the district 14 title by whipping the Malakoff Tigers on their own grounds 53-0 Friday afternoon. The Lads fought their way through the game and showed what power the football eleven possessed. Butting with next few days, Coach Butler will work his charges over in preparation for the hard contests on tap for the remaining part of the football campaign.

Next Friday afternoon, the Lads entertain the strong Italy team on the State Home football field. The kinks showing up in the play from the last Friday will be worked out during the week and the Lads should show considerable improvement against this worthy foe.

The Corsicana Tigers made merry Friday at the expense of the Hillsboro Eagles, making eight touchdowns during the afternoon.

TEAGUE LIONS WIN SATURDAY'S GAME FROM PALESTINE

TEAGUE, Oct. 14.—(Spl).—The Teague Lions put the playing on the top shelf Saturday afternoon when they trounced the Palestine team by a margin of two touchdowns.

The visitors outplayed the Lions in the first half, scoring one touchdown, but in the second half the Lions came back with a vim, took the offensive, and scored three touchdowns before the final thing about the game was the perfect teamwork used by the entire team. With the class of football turned out by the Teague boys Saturday, they will go far toward winning the district championship.

Men who were outstanding in the day's events were: Dodd and Ector in the backfield, and Straile, Archie Hendon, C. B. Hendon and Pat Jamison on the line.

Result of District Fourteen Clashes

MEXIA, Oct. 12.—(Spl).—A survey of games in which district 14 class B teams took part Friday shows the following results:
Mexia 6, Palestine 0; McGregor 7, Marlin 0; Corsicana State Home 53, Malakoff 0; Mart 6, Groesbeck 0; Wortham 19, Koss 0; Waco Orphans 32, Hubbard 0.
Teague plays Palestine seconds Saturday while Itasca plays Denton Saturday. Coolidge and Thornton were idle.

THANKS EXPRESSED FOR THOSE WHO MADE ROTARY MINSTREL GREAT SUCCESS

A. B. Jolley, demonstration agent of Dallas county, was the principal speaker at the luncheon-meeting of the Corsicana Rotary club Monday, his remarks dealing with the agricultural situation in the Black Land Belt of Texas in which the present agricultural system is included, with particular emphasis on the necessity of education for those directly responsible for the carrying out of any change in the present agricultural system, which he referred to as the cotton-minstrel situation. Announcements and acknowledgments of thanks of those who had a part in the Rotary minstrel which the club sponsored at the high school auditorium Friday night were made. It was announced that the net proceeds from the minstrel would approximate $750.

Visitors included A. M. Kerr, Lion; Mr. Peterson, Harry Benson, Mexia, formerly of Corsicana; R. L. Stewart, Dallas; Walter Anderson, Mexia; Sidney K. Brieza and Sadi Ransom.

An announcement was made that the Mexia Rotary club would stage a minstrel Tuesday night, "The Dixie Blackbirds." The club was thanked for assistance during the minstrel included Ted B. Ferguson, president of the club; Beauford H. Jester, general chairman and director; Harrison Fendley, who handled the getting of the tuxedos for the chorus; Paul Moore, publicity writer; W. T. Orr, Henry Walker, tickets; Joel C. Trimble, music; a number of ladies; W. T. McElwies, Leslie Wilkes, Felix Irwin and Billy Peck for the stage setting; Jim B. Robinson for the program from which $200 was given to the club; Fillers and members of the school board for the auditorium and cooperation given; and others.

Charles G. Jester stated that there was a movement on foot to make the presentation of the minstrel an annual affair with the proceeds to go to the student loan fund after the present debt has been paid.

Diego in default of $10,000 bail on a bad check charge.

Fitts charged Connell allowed friends of Pantages to have Sheridan's bail increased from $2,500 to $10,000. The bail was increased, Fitts charged, because Pantages interests knew Sheridan could not raise the higher sum and that "being forced to admit their witness is in jail" the prosecution would be embarrassed before the jury.

Connell denied the charges and said he would investigate the Sheridan case further.

The funeral will be in charge of the Sutherland Funeral Home.

dition of the farms not fenced, not terraced, with no provision made for the placing of livestock in the system and scheme of farming, and of the hardships encountered.

He said that very little had been done but talk.

Need Leadership.
The farmers need leadership of the right sort, like in any other business, and when someone tells a farmer to plant feedstuffs, he will remind them of the years when a food crop was made and no market was available. If feedstuffs are to be raised in the proportion that they should, the only way to market the feed is through livestock, and that caused considerable work and expense.

Mr. Jolley said that few constructive agricultural programs had been carried out, but that both the business men and farmers were beginning to realize the situations that exist. He pointed out how livestock was the base for an enduring agricultural system, showing how the lands in the old countries had been improved and increased even if they had been used for thousands of years.

Conditions here need husbandmen instead of planters and croppers, Mr. Jolley continued.

Next week's program will be in charge of a committee composed of R. L. Wheelock, Howard Register, A. P. Simpson and Carl Patterson. The board of directors met immediately after the conclusion of the program.

MAN HELD ON FOUR SEPARATE CHARGES AFTER WILD RIDE

One person was hauled before Judge H. S. Melear in the Corporation Court Monday morning charged with intoxication, driving while intoxicated, reckless driving and running three red lights. The offender is alleged to have driven his three automobiles, climbed a sidewalk in the business district with his own car, before he was finally arrested.

A variety of other charges appeared on the docket of the court after a busy circus day and the regular week-end activities. Among them were one charge of blocking a sidewalk, two charges of parking on a parkway, one of running a red light, nine crap-shooters, one of affray, one for disturbing the peace, one for intoxication and one for associating with a prostitute in public place.

Lynn Clark and Sid Crews spent Monday afternoon in Van.

Freight Wreck On Cotton Belt Delays Traffic Saturday

Southbound traffic on the Cotton Belt lines was delayed several hours early Saturday when a freight car on a northbound freight train crossed the track, near Brownsboro, necessitating a wrecking train from Tyler to clear up the trouble.

The trouble was cleared up but trains were further delayed by the heavy circus train following the regular offerings having to proceed slowly over the newly constructed roadbed. Trains were reported almost back on schedule by noon.

ZION'S REST MAN DIED MONDAY; BODY BE SENT ILLINOIS

LeRoy DeFosha of Zion's Rest, 34, died at the Navarro Clinic Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock and the body will be forwarded to his old home at Alton, Ill., at 6:15 o'clock Tuesday morning by the Corley-McMahon Funeral Home, where interment will be made sometime Thursday.

His death was a result of accidental gunshot wounds received August 27 while hunting. He was shot in the right arm. He was admitted to the local hospital, Sept. 2.

Mr. DeFosha came to Corsicana 18 months ago from Alton, Ill., and was employed at a machinist at the American Well and Prospecting Company.

Surviving are his wife, mother, Mrs. C. Davenport, two sisters, Mrs. O. W. Mourning and Mrs. Ruth Myers, all of Alton, Ill., and other relatives.

Once in the clutches of RHEUMATISM

now the joy of the home
Why Rheumatism can't be rubbed out

THOSE muscular pains, commonly called rheumatism, are generally due to "run-down" condition, with the number of red-blood-cells below the normal point.

S.S.S. aids the system in building up these red-blood-cells and in getting rid of the condition of which the rheumatism is but a symptom. The body becomes strong and disease-resistant, and the rheumatic pains go.

Pains in your muscles and joints make you miserable, less efficient, interfere with your working hours, ruin your sleep. If allowed to continue, as the years pass the danger increases.

But what a change with rich, red-blood-cells in your system.

body—Nature's building material—making the flesh firm—giving strength to the vital organs.

You can't rub rheumatism out. It is deeper than that. It must be driven out. And the sure way is by helping the fighting blood—the red-blood-cells.

Increase your army of "workers" (red-blood-cells) and those muscle and joint pains, commonly called rheumatism, vanish. S.S.S. has brought this change about for thousands. Why not for you?

"I was very nervous; had hardly any appetite, and suffered with rheumatism. I tried many medicines, but S.S.S. is the one that did me the most good. I am now well and feel like a new man."—William Osborne, 2406 Sloan Street, Flint, Mich.

W. S. GOODE NAMED SERVICE OFFICER OF AMERICAN LEGION

CORSICANA MAN WILL RE-MOVE TO AUSTIN TAKE UP
DUTIES AT EARLY DATE

W. S. Goode of Corsicana has been appointed service officer for the Texas American Legion organization and he, his wife and daughter, will move to Austin within the next week or ten days, according to an announcement Monday morning. Mr. Goode's appointment was made by Ernest C. Cox of Corsicana, post commander of the Texas American Legion, and the appointment was confirmed with several others at a meeting of the State Legion executive committee Sunday.

The service officer is a new department created this year and will deal with compensation and hospitalization matters for the disabled veterans of the world war.

Mr. Goode has been a resident of Corsicana for the past ten years. He was boys' work secretary and general secretary of the Corsicana M. C. A. for a number of years and has been connected with the Clowe Floral company for the past three years.

The new officer was born at Alpine, Texas, and attended high school at Pecos. He attended several Y. M. C. A. schools and just prior to coming to Corsicana he completed a business course in the Tyler Commercial College. He is 30 years of age.

Mr. Goode enlisted in the U. S. Navy in June, 1918, and served on a submarine chaser on the Pacific Coast.

Other appointments made at the meeting in Austin Sunday were R. O. Whitaker, Cleburne, State adjutant, succeeding Ross E. Cole; George Hughes, Groesbeck, assistant adjutant; and Sam McCarty, Beeville, organizer.

Mr. Cox, formerly of the State Legislature from Navarro county, assistant adjutant of the American Legion and formerly boys' director and football coach of the State Orphans' Home, was elected commander at the Legion convention at Port Arthur several weeks ago and was formally installed as commander at the National Legion convention at Louisville, Ky., several days ago.

Trade Publication Gives Recognition To Local Florist

HARRY A. CLOWE

The Florists' Review, a weekly journal published for florists, seedsmen and growers, is published in Chicago.

The October issue is of interest to Corsicana and Navarro county. Under the caption of "Who's Who in the Trade and Why" there appeared a picture of Harry A. Clowe of Corsicana in connection with the following was carried:

"Since 1885 the name Clowe has been identified with the progress of the florists' industry in the great southwest section of this country. When the members of the Texas State Florists' association elected H. A. Clowe a director of the organization at the convention at Galveston last month, they bestowed honor upon and placed great trust in one who has been faithfully carrying on the establishment founded by his father at Corsicana forty-four years ago."

"Clowe Floral company, the first florists' business established in the vicinity of Corsicana, is the result of the early efforts of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Clowe. At this time H. A. Clowe's son, W. A. Clowe III, is actively engaged in the business—the third generation carrying on in the same industry. Mr. Clowe is proud, too, of a grandson, another W. A. Clowe, representing the fourth generation who has given indication of following in the footsteps of his forebearers. In the southwest, relatively new part of the country, the third generation engaged in any of the more advanced refinements of civilization is unusual."

RUSSIANS PLAN HOP OVER ATLANTIC ON HOMEWARD TRIP

FOUR INTREPID FLYERS REACH SEATTLE AFTER HAZARDOUS JOURNEY

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 14.—(P)—Safe in Seattle after a hazardous flight from Moscow, four Russian aviators today disclosed they were considering a trans-Atlantic flight as a sequel to their present undertaking to be completed when they reach New York.

Worn out by a 1,000 mile flight from Waterfall, Alaska, during which their plane, "Land of the Soviets," battled a 36-mile an hour head wind, the four aviators reached here at dusk yesterday. As they rested from the trip, S. A. Shestakov, chief pilot of the plane, revealed a hop across the Atlantic was under consideration.

If the Russians cross the Atlantic they expect to continue on to Moscow from the west by air, thus making a round the world flight. The hop from Waterfall took 10 hours and 10 minutes. Navigator Boris V. Sterlingov said. Most of the way the ship cleared the waves at an elevation of only 15 feet because of fog and head winds.

Work will begin immediately on removal of the pontoons and substitution of land gear on the plane. Inspection of the motors will determine whether the stop here will be more than three days before the flight to San Francisco. From San Francisco the fliers plan to fly to Cheyenne, Wyo.; Chicago, Dearborn and New York.

CORSICANA WOMAN BURIED SUNDAY IN VAN ZANDT COUNTY

Funeral services for Mrs. L. C. Burns, aged 79, who died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Allie Young, four miles north of Corsicana, after an illness of several weeks, were held Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church in the Tundra community, Van Zandt county, with the Rev. W. W. Slaughter of Edgewood, officiating. Interment was made in the Cool Springs cemetery, Van Zandt county.

The deceased was born in Tennessee but came with her parents to Texas when a small child, living.

SPEAKEASIES AND NIGHT CLUBS VICE HEADQUARTERS

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—(P)—Night clubs and speakeasies were condemned as headquarters of commercialized vice in New York in the annual report of the Committee of Fourteen, published today.

The committee, headed by Dr. James Pedersen, was organized 25 years ago to combat vice.

Dr. Pedersen said that though night clubs and speakeasies constituted only 9 per cent of the committee's 14,399 investigations, they revealed 75 per cent of the violations.

Conditions in the drinking resorts of Harlem, New York's populous negro settlement, where the patronage is mixed white and negro, were described as the worst in the matter of social morality.

Employment agencies which supply female help, hostesses, check room attendants and cigarette vendors to night clubs were linked with the clubs in the vice committee. Taxicab drivers were accused of being aides to the traffic.

Four Hundred Seventy-Nine Used Cars In Nine Months

Four Hundred and Seventy Nine used cars have been purchased from us by Automobile users in Navarro County from January 1st to September 30th of this year. This record breaking volume of used car sales is attributed by us to Public Recognition and Confidence in our strict adherence to the use of trained Mechanics and genuine parts in the reconditioning of all used cars.

The wonderful public acceptance of the New Chevrolet Six has placed us in better position than ever before with reference to the class of used cars handled. We particularly invite you to inspect our wide range of types and models from the standpoint of comparative condition and value.

As Chevrolet Dealers, we are fully conscious of the tremendous importance of reselling used cars on a basis that will increase public good will. We believe that the best method we can use to do this is to recondition the car you buy in such manner as to assure you of "Satisfaction, Dependability, and Honest Value."

IT'S A GREAT GAME.

A quarter of a million boys are playing football in the United States this fall. This somewhat definite figure helps an understanding of the universality of the game in this country.

The number includes players on the squads of 567 colleges and 10,000 high schools in the 48 states. Take other than high school and college teams, take the thousands who try for their teams and fail, take scrub games on recreation fields and corner lots, and how many more participate? The grand total might well be a million.

As developed from the British rugby by changes of the rules during more than 40 years, the game has become well-nigh wholly an American one. Its widespread organization is distinctly American.

Deplorable casualties, including an occasional death, still occur, but have been minimized by the rules of recent years. The prominence of the games insures their mention and increased participation increases the chances of injury. There seems reason for believing that the casualties in the organized game now existing are less in number than would be true among such a vast number in unorganized competitions of all sorts which inevitably would result if this outlet for youth's instinctive love of physical contests did not exist.

There are dangers: Lack of organization and proper direction at the bottom, hence helter-skelter struggles, mere fights; and over-emphasis of the game in crack schools and universities, with commercialism a sinister factor. Still, we should say that the size of our foot ball game is to be taken as a sign of healthy, vigorous, sturdy manhood to me. It should breed discipline, co-operative action, will, courage, a brave spirit and readiness of body and mind.

WARNING TO INVESTORS

The Better Business Bureau does what it can to keep incautious fingers from the fire. Its latest contribution to public education is a plain warning against stock promotions in the new business of aviation, which range from the dreams of hopeless visionaries to the most crassly dishonest swindles. This adds an unprejudiced confirmation to the opinion of many financial experts and aeronautical authorities that a proportion of "racketeering" has gone into the generous financing of the new industry by an enthusiastic and optimistic public.

The bureau states that practically all of its district branches report trouble with dishonest or incompetent flying schools. These fakers are perhaps more vicious than the plausible promoters of paper airports and airways or those who gain control of reputable aviation enterprises and inflate them into footballs for the stock market. Their victims are usually youngsters, and their operation imperils human life. In many States they can do business just beyond the range of legislation and make their unrighteous profits from the pockets of those whose enthusiasm for aviation outruns their judgment and experience. The Better Business Bureau is rendering a service to aviation and the public when it speaks plainly of this company of undesirables which follows after every new and promising industry.

Among those prominently missing from the mayor's committee to welcome Premier MacDonald to New York was Admiral Charles M. Schwab.

BETTER IN JAIL THAN OUT.

Those who obtained a graphic picture of conditions at the Colorado state penitentiary during the mutiny shudder at the thought that there are at large throughout the land many men as murderous and cruel as those convicts who killed their guards in cold blood in a futile attempt to enforce their demands for liberty. It is not a comforting thought.

Several things may be expected to result from this shocking episode which has no parallel in the history of American criminology. That it will have an effect upon prison guards everywhere is certain. Prisons will be more carefully guarded and prisoners will be better treated by their guards.

The slaughter at Canon City will make harder the way of the transgressor. It will vindicate habitual criminal laws in the minds of sentimentalists who have opposed them because they seem harsh. It will make it easier to obtain convictions of gunmen, bandits and gangsters, for juries will reason that it may be better that an innocent man go to jail than that a killer be at large.

Criminals impose upon themselves the penalties they suffer. As their crimes increase in number and viciousness laws become more stringent and punishment more severe. Criminals who grant no quarter can expect no quarter.

OCTOBER.

Thirty-one days of cool, invigorating weather, perfect motoring, ideal working temperature, brilliant panoramas and glorious October.

There is some doubt as to the existence of an Indian summer, but if there is such an ideal season it is October, which, coincidentally, is the month when Indian summer is supposed to put in its appearance. There is a real suspicion that Indian summer is just another name for October. At least October weather corresponds with that of the mythical Indian summer.

October is death to vegetable life but it is life to men. While the leaves take on their colorful shrouds and the green meadows fade to the brown of death, man's blood is all a-tingle and the joy of living is at its zenith. Every October day is made for work and play. The bright, crisp mornings are an inspiration for work or for communion with nature, the days make one strive to make the most of them and the nights are "built for sleep."

Sad and dreary will be the parting when October drops behind.

YOUTH AND AGE.

A nation-wide survey made by the American Federation of Labor has demonstrated that from an industrial standpoint a man is old at 45 and not wanted in thousands of industrial plants. Even Uncle Sam will not allow men of 45 and over to enter the postal service.

Even if 45 as distinguished from 44 marked a definite step downward, it would still be ridiculous from an economic standpoint. The nation that found no employment for men of 45 and over would have to provide for them anyhow. The firm that refused to pay him a wage would find itself paying in taxes the equivalent of his dole and getting no return.

After a druggist's apprentice masters the names of the 85 brands of candy bars, he spends a week each memorizing the names of tooth pastes and confections listed under the general heading of sundae.

What profits it a woman to take 20 years from her age facially, and then have to climb into a rumble seat?

As a rule, you can measure a man's feeling of importance by the degree of his discourtesy.

Marriages are made in heaven, but most of the preliminaries are arranged in the auto.

The World war was not the longest on record, but the hangover seems to be.

RESTRAINTS ON RECKLESSNESS

Meeting in Chicago, the National Safety Congress is confronted with a record of 91 automobile fatalities per day during the month of August, and with the duty of studying means of curbing the rising toll. The rate—33,125 per year—compares with 27,500 in the calendar year 1928, which itself presented an increase of seven per cent over the year before.

More automobiles, more motor fatalities. That might be expected, except for factors operating to offset the consequences of increased traffic density and additions to the ranks of inexperienced and incompetent drivers. Those factors are the alleged increased mechanical efficiency in motor car control, principally owing to slightly better braking power, and added legal and sentimental restraints upon recklessness.

Sentimental restraint covers the awakening of public opinion to the necessity of caution—care at grade crossings, on curves and hills in crowded streets and highways and on slippery pavements. This will be part of the job of the National Safety Congress.

Reckless drivers cannot be much further shackled, but they can be educated.

ENCOURAGING REFORESTATION.

The principal difficulty has been encountered in the endeavor to prevail upon owners of lands, which once grew timber in commercial quantities, to replant their uncultivated acres for the future has been the problem of taxation.

Though reforested land produces no profit for the owner until the trees have matured, taxes must be paid on them during the score or more years while the trees are growing. The result is few landowners can afford to grow trees. By necessity the owners must get what they can in the way of immediate returns. Reforested lands cannot be used for grazing purposes because of the danger of the herds and flocks damaging the young trees, and it is not feasible to grow trees and farm crops on the same land.

This situation has awakened the timber states to the fact that legislative encouragement is essential to a national policy of reforestation. The Wisconsin legislature has blazed the way in a practical manner, and in a way that other states are bound to emulate.

Henceforth forest lands in Wisconsin will be exempt from all ordinary taxes. Instead of being taxed annually a forest tax will be levied by the state when the timber is cut. While the timber is growing the owner and the state will each pay 10 cents per annum to the local government.

Under this law many owners of land fit only for grazing and tree growing will be encouraged to plant trees and less cut-over land will be sold for delinquent taxes. The Wisconsin law was hastened by the fact that there are 2,000,000 acres of land in that state upon which the owners have refused to pay taxes since cutting off the timber, finding it less of a loss to lose the land than to pay the taxes.

Chemists having failed again to invent synthetic gold, rendering an equivalent in labor still remains the only way to get it.

PATTERN 1651
 Corsicana Daily Sun 15c Practical Pattern

A house dress that is unusually smart yet particularly easy to make, is sketched today in Design 1651. It opens out flat like a coat, making laundering very simple. The notched collar is manish and chic; the cuffs and belt are trim and neat looking. Pearl buttons are attached to give a double breasted effect.

The nurse or professional woman will like this model fashioned of white linen. For household duties, Design 1651 may be developed of plain or printed percale, gingham, rayon or wash broadcloth.

May be obtained only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34. Size 36 requires 3-4 yards material 36 inches wide.

This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions, including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE wanted.

THE FASHION BOOK is FIFTEEN CENTS, but only TEN CENTS when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Corsicana Daily Sun Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

NINETY-SEVENTH BOMB IN CHICAGO PLACED BY GARAGE

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The 97th bomb of the year shook the South Shore residential district last night and blew some credence into the recently evolved police theory that racketeers have resorted to "pin-apples" in reprisals for stock market losses.

The bomb was placed beside a private garage at the rear of an apartment house, among whose tenants is Alfred S. Trude, Jr., member of the Board of Trade and nephew of Judge Daniel P. Trude. Two weeks ago a powerful bomb was exploded at the front door of the apartment of C. H. McCarty, another broker. McCarty lives just a few blocks from Trude, as does also State's Attorney John A. Swanson.

The explosion caused little damage. A short time after the South Shore bombing, Evanston's fourth bomb in the last two months exploded in the basement of an unfinished apartment building. Police attributed it to a crank. Prior to the first of the recent four bombings, the North Shore suburb had not experienced a bombing for more than a decade.

Run-Down

"About seven years ago, I was all run-down, worn-out and never felt good," says Mrs. Harry Cantrell, of Cape Girardeau, Mo. "A chair would be more welcome any time than my work."

"I was so tired when I would arise in the morning. Instead of being rested, I felt terrible."

"At last, mother told me to take Cardui, and I did. After the first bottle, I could tell a difference, and when I had taken five bottles the tired feeling was all gone. I felt like a different person, thanks to Cardui. I hope that other mothers will try Cardui. I have been wonderfully benefited by it."

FUNERAL OF VICTIM OF MAD ELEPHANT IS BURIED HERE MONDAY

"Black Diamond," one of the largest elephants of the herd. Mrs. Donohoe was talking with Buck Griffin, also of Kerens, Curley Prickett, Kerens, employees of Mrs. Donohoe, formerly animal trainer and in charge of "Black Diamond" for seven years prior to two years ago when the elephant was acquired by the Barnes owners. Prickett was handling the elephant at the time of the melee. Prickett formerly had charge of a zoo at Dallas. Prickett is in the Corsicana Hospital and Clinic suffering a broken wrist sustained when he was hurled aside by the pachyderm.

The elephant charged Mrs. Donohoe, a tusk ripping her head open. The beast then reached in between two automobiles and gathered the dying woman with his trunk, flung her to the ground and then stamped and drove his long tusks at her limp body. The elephant was finally corralled and dragged back to his cage on tracks, where he lay securely chained. Buck Griffin was also lashed as a hero by spectators for his fight with the huge elephant in securing possession of Mrs. Donohoe's body. Griffin made a desperate attempt to save Mrs. Donohoe's life.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Louise Mahan, Fairfax, Oklahoma; two brothers, C. D. Speed, Corsicana, and G. E. Speed, Ft. Worth, and one sister, Mrs. W. P. Miller, Hollywood, Calif. Mrs. Donohoe was a member of the Methodist church, Daughters of the American Revolution, United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Eastern Star. She was a well-to-do landowner of the Kerens community. Prickett is a native of Fort Worth and for years was employed in a circus. His trick was painting of his head in the mouth of elephants. He was considered an expert elephant handler, officials of the Barnes circus stated. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Prickett, and a brother reside in Fort Worth.

Kerens People Attend
The following Kerens people were in Corsicana Monday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. E. H. Donohoe: G. W. Speed, Homer Carroll, Mrs. J. E. Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ray, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Youngblood, E. E. Nettle, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mays, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Noble, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Coates and numerous others.

MRS. NANNIE CRAIG BURIED SUNDAY IN EMMETT CEMETERY

INVITATIONS TO FIVE-POWER NAVAL CONFERENCE BIG EVENT IN WORLD CIRCLES OF WEEK

BY SAVINGTON CRAMPTON.
Cable Editor, The Associated Press.
Prime Minister MacDonald and President Hoover, after meeting in Washington, have sent a call for a new five-power naval disarmament conference echoing round the world.

Declaring war between England and America is "unthinkable," the two statesmen last week jointly expressed their confidence that "such mutual understandings will be reached as will make naval agreement next January possible."

Thus, they strongly supported the actual invitations to France, Japan and Italy for a conference in London about the third week in January, which were sent out by Foreign Secretary Henderson from the British capital.

The United States immediately accepted the invitation. France, Japan and Italy, expected to accept, moved more slowly, and a barrage of semi-official press comment was laid down to cover their study of the text.

International Bank.
The conversations in Washington with their repercussions in foreign capitals, overshadowed events in the rest of the world. The only comparable international movement was the unostentatious work of the group of bankers who are defining the scope of the bank for international settlements at Baden-Baden.

Their decisions have so far closely followed the suggestions of the Young plan, which provided for the bank. They have arranged for the composition of the board of directors, limiting the term of office to three years, and agreed the chairman must be a "full-time" worker, thus ruling out any governor of a bank of issue.

In Afghanistan and China, war and revolution menaced the far east.

The Afghan usurper, Habibullah Khan, was defeated at Kabul by Nadir Kahn, once a loyal supporter of the deposed Amanullah. Nadir was reported to have no personal ambition for the throne, but there was no sign Amanullah would be recalled from exile in Italy.

In China, the nationalist government, in addition to its trouble with Russia in Manchuria, faced new difficulties with the enigmatic Central China war lord, Marshal Feng Yu-Hsiang.

Australia returned a labor government and assembly in its second general election within a year. The prestige of the labor government in London was undoubtedly helpful to the Australian labor party's cause.

The Australian presidential campaign showed signs of growing unruly. Fighting occurred in some localities, and the two candidates, Pascual Ortiz Rubio of the national revolutionary party and Jose Vasconcelos of the anti-re-electionist party, accused each other of fomenting revolution.

Taking the oath on the Bible which his father used when he was sworn in as president of the United States, Col. Theodore Roosevelt assumed office as governor of Porto Rico.

Col. and Mrs. Charles Lindbergh returned from a flight of 20 days around the Caribbean. They discovered at least three lost cities of the Mayan civilization while flying with archaeologists over the Yucatan jungles of Mexico.

Dieudonne Coste, French ace, and Maurice Bellonte set a new world's distance record by a non-stop flight from Paris to a village near Tsi-tshar, Manchuria.

AGED WOMAN MUST DIE FOR PART IN GEORGIA MURDER

ALLEGED TO HAVE INSURED
LIFE OF YOUTH AND THEN
HAD HIM MURDERED

MACON, Ga., Oct. 11.—(P)—Mrs. Sarah Powers, 71-year-old rooming house proprietress, today was found guilty, without recommendation of mercy, as an accessory before the fact in the slaying of James Parks, youthful Atlanta printer. Under Georgia law such a verdict automatically carries the death sentence.

paper "ad" for a "young man who wants home-like surroundings." She then obtained a $7,000 double indemnity insurance policy on the young man's life, the charge said, and planned his death in order to collect $14,000.

Earl Manchester, 19-year-old Rochester, Mich. youth was convicted as the slayer several months ago and is under a death sentence pending an outcome of his appeal for a new trial.

Manchester was called by the state to testify against Mrs. Powers, but when told he was not forced to testify, asked that he be excused and that the court "be merciful to her."

He had previously confessed Mrs. Powers promised him $1,000 to kill Parks.

GENERAL RAIN NEEDED FOR FARMING PURPOSES; COTTON AND CORN CROP STATISTICS

AUSTIN, Oct. 11.—(P)—Although some relief from drouthy conditions was given by scattered showers in September, a general rain is needed to facilitate plowing and for sowing wheat, oats, barley and rye, according to the Texas crop report as of October 1, issued by H. H. Schultz today, statistician with the bureau of agricultural economics, United States department of agriculture.

"In some of the northern and northwestern countries where sufficient rain has fallen wheat and oats are coming up to a stand," Schultz said. "Gathering the corn crop has made good progress, and cotton picking is more than half done. Some sections need more pickers, but generally the supply of labor is greater than the demand."

Sizing up the cotton crop, Schultz said that "while a large proportion of the field will not average a bale to five acres, for the state as a whole 108 pounds per acre are expected."

"Some 40 out of the 219 cotton producing counties are making a larger crop than in 1928," he said. "Nueces and San Patricio counties are producing more bales than ever before."

All except the late planted corn has been ripe for some time and a large proportion has been gathered, with indications pointing to a production of 88,796,000 bushels and an average yield of 18.2 bushels he said. Only 1924 and 1925 in recent years have had a lower yield, he stated.

The rice crop is turning out well and is being harvested under excellent conditions, with a production of 6,707,000 bushels indicated by the October 1 condition of 90 per cent, he said.

"A decided improvement has been made by most of the sweet potato acreage since the September rains and prospects are now good for a 60 per cent crop," Schultz's report said. "Yields will be somewhat better than in 1924 when the average was 57 bushels per acre."

Peanuts were also benefited by the rains and a condition of 64 per cent forecasts a production of 83,787,000 pounds on the large acreage planted this year, the report said.

Grain sorghums were revived by the September rains, but only an unusually late frost can add to the present reduced prospects, Schultz said.

Pecans are expected to produce forty per cent of a full crop against 52 per cent reported at this time a year ago.

Citrus fruit is almost mature. September rains having been of great help, and an excellent quality of fruit is almost ready to move in quantity, Schultz stated.

GALVESTON MAN IS FOUND DEAD; LOOKS LIKE GANG MURDER

GALVESTON, Oct. 11.—(P)—James Clinch's body, two pistol slugs in the back of the head, was found sprawled on a residential sidewalk early today, and police believed he had been slain by gangsters.

A 45 calibre pistol, which had not been fired, was found beneath the victim. A wrist watch and $88 in Clinch's pocket had not been disturbed.

Persons living in the vicinity said they heard shots and an automobile speed away. In the center of the street opposite the body stood a small automobile, its lights burning, but its motor off. Investigators believed Clinch, 24, after a conversation with the killers, had fled his automobile and sought safety in the nearest house, the slayers cutting him down as he ran.

Clinch's parents and a brother live in New York. The father, a sea captain, is away on a voyage.
